

Trauma-Informed Care Open House Celebration

May 22nd is Trauma-Informed Care Day

The Door County Department of Human Services, along with our partner organizations, invite you to celebrate with us. Come learn about trauma-informed care and the practices we are using in our work.

Tuesday, May 22, 2018

1:00pm to 3:00pm

Peninsula Room - Gov't. Center
421 Nebraska Ave. Sturgeon Bay, WI

Refreshments will be served*

FREE COMMUNITY
EVENT

- Therapeutic Drumming Circle demonstration led by JAK's Place
- JAK's Place Art Therapy Group display
- Hands - on sensory/relaxation project
- Human Services' renovated spaces tour
- Trauma-Informed Care Educational Materials

"A trauma-informed Wisconsin enhances the ability of children and adults to adapt, cope, and thrive despite difficult times, supporting the mental well-being of everyone in our state." - Governor Scott Walker