

The Door County Partnership for Children and Families, together with our partner organizations, is dedicated to connecting people to resources through a family-centered approach in order to achieve social emotional well-being and school success.

Door County Partnership for Children and Families (DCPCF) – Committee Descriptions

Executive Committee: This committee is responsible for the general oversight of the DCPCF. Members include DCPCF staff and individuals from several partner organizations.

Family Enrichment Sub-Committee: This sub-committee meets monthly and is responsible for developing and facilitating opportunities for engagement, enrichment and leadership for Door County parents and families. Sub-committee members include DCPCF Coordinator, DCPCF Family Engagement Leader, individuals from various partner organizations and parent representatives.

Collaboration Sub-Committee: This sub-committee meets monthly and is responsible for developing opportunities and maintaining collaborative efforts between the DCPCF, our partner organizations and community members. Sub-committee members include DCPCF Coordinator and individuals from various partner organizations.

Marketing Sub-Committee: This sub-committee meets as needed and is responsible for developing and implementing marketing strategies for the DCPCF. Sub-committee members include the DCPCF Coordinator, DCPCF Community Connector, individuals from partner organizations and parent representatives.

Community Resource Sub-Committee: This sub-committee meets quarterly and is responsible for updating and maintaining the Community Resource Guide on the Door County Library website. Sub-committee members include the DCPCF Coordinator, DCPCF Community Connector, and individuals from partner organizations.

Community Connections Sub-Committee: This sub-committee meets as needed and is responsible for development and continued improvement of processes related to DCPCF Community Connections. Members include the DCPCF Coordinator, DCPCF Community Connector and individuals from partner organizations.

DCPCF Meeting: This informational meeting is held quarterly and is open to the public. The meeting begins with round-robin introductions and partner organization updates. An update is provided by the DCPCF Executive Committee, followed by brief sub-committee reports. Each meeting includes additional discussion topics to encourage consumer voice in planning DCPCF initiatives.