

2022 Door County Family Enrichment Survey Results - Partner Discussion Notes

Partner discussion notes are in blue...

EDUCATION AND LEARNING

Topics most important to the majority:

- Mental health and wellbeing of the children following the impact of the pandemic
- Triple P “Positive Parenting” class – Chad is currently being trained to teach this program
- How to diffuse escalation – Chat with Chad article content / social media content – reach out to survey participant for clarification
- Kindergarten readiness (resources / skills / knowledge needed) – Chat with Chad content / social media
- Project based learning
- Homeschoolers: opportunities to learn in the community – Rebecca and Chad will work to connect with homeschooled families to listen to their needs and work on providing support
- Learn more about Door County history from the different people that came and stayed, different tribes, wildlife, plants, artists, shipwrecks and more – social media / monthly newsletter content

RAISING A FAMILY

Stress management is at the top of everyone’s list. Followed by a tie between internet safety and peer pressure. Other topics of interest are:

- Family team building – suggestion by Cori M: partner with Team Leadership Center and DCDHHS and Healthy Door County
- Healthy eating / meal planning – look for ways to partner with Healthy Door County / social media posts
- Budgeting – reach out to survey participant to share available resources / monthly newsletter, Chat with Chad, social media

COMMUNITY ACTIVITIES

Family entertainment activities and connecting with other families got the most votes and parents indicated they want more in regards to these as well:

- Outdoor / nature-based activities – Suggestion by Kathy S: Jane Buress / spotlight nature centers in correspondence to families

[Type here]

- Opportunities for free fun activities for kids – Kathy S. has ideas for family centered activities / Chad has some ideas to collaborate with TAP theatre / Partnership is participating in the “Kick off to Summer” event this summer.
- Connecting with other families – Suggestion by Cori M: - look for ways to promote activities happening – i.e. Jak’s Place in partnership with Mental Health Focus Group is holding an event in May.
- Connecting with other parents who have young children with special needs – reach out to survey participant to share available resources

OTHER ADDITIONAL IDEAS

- Resource spotlights in monthly newsletter / social media
- Send newsletter ad to schools to disburse to families
